

Cortex V6.4

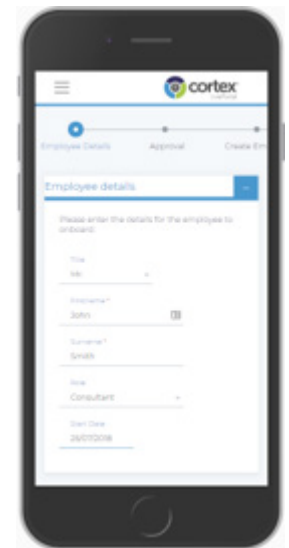

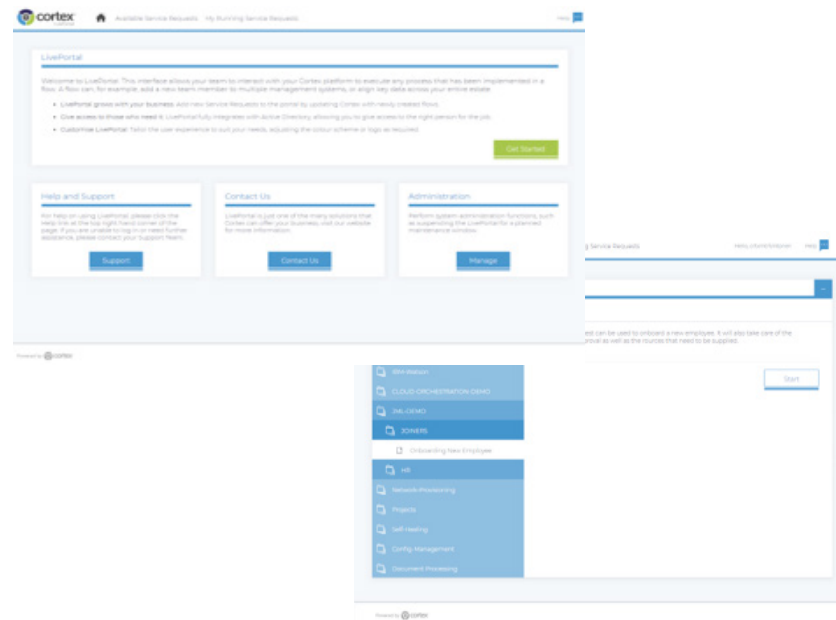

Intelligent Automation Platform

Ease of Use

With the new V6.4 release, usability upgrades include:

- New LivePortal and transformed UI design
 - Improved standards for layout and controls
- Latest dynamic web support
 - Flow authors can create more user-friendly responsive webpages
- New and improved controls
 - Core functionality to simplify and reduce flow design time
- New taxonomy support
 - Flow authors can easily manage automation flows in an agile and dynamic business environment

Security

Enhancements

Security upgrades in the V6.4 platform include:

- CREST and Tigerscheme certified security
 - Retained external 3rd party partners to assess hardened platform
- Qualys SSL A Rating
 - Continued verification of secure connections to, and configurations of Cortex Gateway
- New dedicated CyberArk interfaces
 - CyberArk Credential Management Platform
 - + Cortex accesses and retrieves on demand centrally managed and audited privileged credentials
 - CyberArk Application Identity Manager (AIM)
 - + Improved security, reducing manual administration dependency

Performance

Upgrades

Performance upgrades being released in the new version include:

- Higher performance
 - Server optimisation for the Cortex Gateway web client required for flow testing
 - Cortex Gateway web client memory consumption optimised
- Faster publishing
 - Increased speeds for Flow loading time to production servers and flow to subtask execution
- Cost effective operations of development/training/test environments
 - Latest database support
- Optimised installation
 - Streamlined installation and configuration requirements
- Greater control
 - Increased admin functionalities for version control

